B.A. No. 6057 OF 2007

Dated this the 8th day of October, 2007

ORDER

Application for anticipatory bail. The petitioners are father, mother and sisters of the husband of one Missy. Her husband is employed abroad. She has filed a petition before the police. The gist of the prayer in the said petition is that she may be permitted to reside with her husband when he returns to India from the place of employment. The petitioners apprehend imminent arrest on the allegation that they have committed non- bailable offences against the said Missy.

2. The learned Public Prosecutor, after taking instructions, submits that no crime has been registered against the petitioners and the petitioners are not required to be arrested at all. If the petitioners were required to be arrested in connection with any offence allegedly committed by them prior to this date against the said Missy, prior permission of this Court shall be taken, submits learned Public Prosecutor.

3. I take note of and hereby record the submission of the learned Public Prosecutor. In the light of the said submissions, it is evident that the apprehension of the petitioners is without any basis. This petition is accordingly dismissed.
